

Social and Personal.

MISS JULIA JOYNES, who has been spending several months with relatives at Bar Harbor and New York, was one of the Richmond girls dancing at the opening hop given at the University of Virginia. Later Miss Joyne will be one of a delightful house-party at the home of Colonel Grenville Gaines, in Warren-ton.

The dancing was given in the Fayer-weather Gymnasium, and the figures led were unusually pretty and intri-cate. The games were led by Jack Elmer, with Miss Elizabeth Gaines, of Warrenton, and A. Bolling with Miss Towles.

Misses Ann and Mary Traylor, of this city, were also among the dancers. Miss Elizabeth Gaines, who has been a much admired visitor in Richmond, will be the guest of Miss Joyne for several weeks at Thanksgiving.

In Honor of Miss Crutchfield.
Mrs. Aylett Truheart Goddin, of "Pine View," Forest Hill, will entertain on Friday afternoon, November 5, from 4 to 8, at a beautiful reception, in honor of her sister, Miss Willie Chapman Crutchfield, whose marriage to George Burdett Wright, of Louisi-ana, will be one of the social events next week. Mrs. Goddin will be as-isted in receiving by the bride party. Misses Ellen Smith, Marguerite Quarles, Charlotte Branner, and Deane Freireit Robinson will serve the guests.

The dining-room will be artistically decorated in graceful vases of red roses and an effective centerpiece of American Beauty roses in the shape of a heart, the feet and bonbons also carrying out the color scheme of red. The drawing-room, in which Mrs. Goddin will receive her guests, will be decorated in banks of palms, yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles. A number of beautiful entertainments are to be given in honor of Miss Crutchfield and her attendants.

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Coleman Wil- lis, of Cincinnati, whose wedding was celebrated in Covington, Ky., on Oc- tober 20, are stopping at the Jefferson Hotel. Mrs. Willis, who was Miss Vir- ginia Fleming before her marriage, has a wide circle of friends in Rich- mond, and a number of entertainments have been planned in her honor.

Miss Buck a Bridemaid.
Attending Miss Natalie Clews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clews, of New York, at her marriage to George Russell Peabody in St. Thomas's Church on November 16, will be Miss Ella Williams Buek, of Rich- mond, and Alice Anderson, of New York. John A. Stewart, III, will be the best man, and C. Douglas Green, Cornelius von Erden Mitchell, Wil- liam Baylis, Jr., and Henry Goddard, the ushers. Dr. Ernest M. Stiles, rec- tor of St. Thomas's, will officiate, and the ceremony will be followed by a brilliant reception in the Plaza.

Returned from New York.
Mrs. Thomas A. Smyth, who has been chaperoning her sister, Miss Therese Nurney, of Suffolk, for several weeks in New York City, has re- turned to Richmond and will have an apartment at the Jefferson Hotel un- til the completion of her house on Monument Avenue.

Miss Millhiser to Wed.
Charles Millhiser, of 1001 East Mar- shall Street, announces the engage- ment of his daughter, Miriam, to Ed- ward Einstein, formerly of Kinston, N. C., now of Wilmington. No date has been set for the wedding, but the event will be one of great interest here, where Miss Millhiser is widely connected. Mr. Einstein is a prom- inent young business man of Wilming- ton, and is engaged in the wholesale dry goods business in that city.

Guest of Mrs. Bernard.
Mrs. Alice Bernard, who for the past two months has been stopping at the Jefferson Hotel, and entertained a number of her new home, 308 West Franklin Street, will be at home to her friends there in a few days. Mrs. Bernard has as her house guest Miss Hudgins, of Pennsylvania.

Hallowe'en Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gordon, of 1215 Floyd Avenue, entertained a light- ful Hallowe'en party on Saturday night. Decorations were in the con- ventional jack-o'-lanterns and autumn leaves. Some of those present were: Misses Lottie Taylor, Gertrude Crenshaw, Martha Lefebvre, Marie Sands, Frances Scott, Nannie Hoge, Lucy Witt, Robert Beverly, Nelson Robins, Robert Brock, Gordon Lefebvre, Stuart Carter, Talmage Donan, Messrs. White, Cary, Godwin and others.

Meeting to-day.
The central committee of the Asso- ciation for the Preservation of Vir- ginia Antiquities will meet to-day at noon in the rooms of the Virginia His- torical Society. A full attendance is desired.

At the Woman's Club.
The annual book reception was held yesterday afternoon at the Woman's Club, and a good number of books were received for the club library. Mrs. J. H. Southall, chairman, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alston Cabell and Mrs. C. D. Wingfield. Mrs. George Wayne Anderson and Mrs. George Ansley poured coffee. Mrs. S. H. Hawes and Mrs. Pollock Gilmour presided at the tea table, and Mrs. L. M. Currie and Mrs. Ames Gover were hostesses of the evening. Mrs. Ed- ward P. Terhune (Marion Harland), of Once wear PATRICIAN and you will always wear them. The many letters received by the manufac- turers from women who have moved into localities where there is no agency are convincing testimony of the lasting good impres- sion made by PATRI- CIAN SHOES on the women who once wear them.

On Wednesday the first meeting of the literature class will be held at 4:30 o'clock under the auspices of Miss Gussie Daniel. The subject for that afternoon will be the Founding of the Edinburgh Review, and a discussion of the characteristics of Sydney Smith and Lord Jeffrey.

The approaching marriage of Miss Oley Minor and Dr. James Henry Cul- pepper, which will take place in Nor- folk on Thursday, November 4, is of unusual interest to Miss Minor's many friends in Richmond, and a number of them will attend the ceremony.

The wedding will be celebrated at the home of the bride's mother on Colonial Avenue, Norfolk, and will be followed by a brilliant reception.

Mrs. Leslie Young and children, of Spotsburg, will arrive in the city this week, and will be with Mrs. Horace Jones, 200 East Franklin Street, for the winter.

Mrs. Edward S. Rose is undergoing treatment at the Hygeia Hospital.

Miss Virginia Tyler has been the guest of Miss Mattie Young in Fredericksburg.

Mrs. Egbert Leigh, Jr., left on Fri- day for a stay of several weeks at Piedmont, her country home in Orange county.

Miss Margaret Walstrum, of Roan-oke, is the guest of relatives in the city.

Miss Lucy Ford Wortham has been the week-end guest of Miss Roberta Hamilton in Petersburg.

William Jeffress and Palmer Leigh have gone to New York to attend the wedding of Charles Williams, which takes place this week.

Herbert Powell left on Friday night for a visit to his old home in Savan- nah, Ga.

Mrs. Gustav Baumann, of Cincin- nati, is stopping at the Guarant for a few days on her return home from a visit to her sister in New York.

Mrs. Helen Tanner and her guest, Miss Carrie Randolph, of Albemarle, have gone to Keswick.

Miss Ellen Witt, who has been spending several months in Paquiter county, has returned to the city.

Miss Kate M. Dabney, of Washing- ton, D. C., who has been spending the summer and autumn at the Hot Springs, is at the Jefferson Hotel.

Hon. George S. Shackelford, of Orange, spent several days last week in Richmond.

Mrs. R. Elliot Palmer, of London, England, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Bailey, in Newport News, is the guest of her nephew, Har- old Bailey, at El Rancho, on James River.

Mrs. John L. Eubank, has arrived in Richmond from the Warm Springs and will remain at the Guarant until she goes South for the winter, where she has taken a cottage at Datona, Fla.

Miss Kate Hall, of Staunton, is vis- iting Mrs. Anderson at Warm Springs.

Mrs. George T. M. Gibson, of Bal- timore, attended the general conven- tion of U. D. C. in Houston, and is now visiting her aunt in Galveston, Texas.

Nathan Middleton, who formerly made his home in this city and now resides in Baltimore, spent Sunday with friends here.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BY VIRGINIA WESTOVER

Correspondents are requested to send communications on subjects in which they are interested and re- garding which they desire infor- mation to the Editor of the Wo- man's Page.

Just what is meant by "Floristry" and its application in decorations?

"Floristry" means the introduction of harmonious effects into house and table decorations, or the evolution of the florist's knowledge into the profes- sional art. Such art as gives a brunette hostess a setting of golden chrysanthemums, or deep red roses. That contrasts Titian tresses with the narcissus, the hyacinth, the white ja- mine or lilacs of the valley.

Fisher Fur.
What is "Fisher fur?" How does it rank in the matter of expense?

It is having a revival after not hav- ing been seen for many years. It is a beautiful fur and a cousin of sable. In the matter of expense it ranks with mink.

Proper Proportion.
In what proportion should tincture of benzoin, when used to whiten the skin, be mixed with water? B. E.

A teaspoonful of benzoin to a cup of water is not too strong.

In What Beauty Consists.
What are the requisites considered indispensable in a woman who is a beauty?
S. C.
The hair should be long and smooth, the eyebrows and eyelashes thick and dark, the eyes full of expression, the forehead white without lines, the cheeks pink and softly rounded, the rest of the face delicately white. The nose should be straight and finely chiseled, the mouth and chin firm, the voice sweet and the smile ready and sympathetic.

Auto Vases.
Are vases now considered a part of the general equipment of a motor car?
R. V.

They are, and are attached to the interior, making a pretty note in car decoration. Yellow chrysanthemums are the present fad, and in many of the cars glimpses may be had of a vase filled with these flowers and with sprays of red berries as the cars go whizzing by.

Bridge Prizes.
What is the newest thing in bridge prizes?
T. H.

Photograph frames in carved wood gilded with gold leaf. The designs are Louis XVI. in style, and the flowers in high relief. The mats are often of moiré silk. Sets of five or six of such frames, well placed, give an excellent effect.

In Shopping Bags.
Do Christmas novelties show any- thing that is very smart in wrist and shopping bags?
T. C.

The latest is found in medium-size suede bags with bottom corners round- ed. The linings are of watered silk and the pocket mounts inside of French gilt. The outside frame clasps are covered with the same suede, while plaited fine silk cords and tassels of the same color trim the sides of the bag and form the handle.

New Mexican Stone.
What kind of a stone is chalchihuitl, and where is it found?
D. H. S.

Chalchihuitl is a Mexican gem of a more beautiful blue than the tur- quoise, and possessing the luminosity of the opal.

Mother Shipton.
Was there ever a woman in England named "Mother Shipton," and did she actually write prophecies?
H. G.

There was a Mrs. Shipton born in England in 1488, who died in 1650, and is said to have predicted the death of Cardinal Wolsey.

Game of Beanboard.
How is the game of beanboard played?
A. D. T.

It may be played with any number of persons, and there is no rule as to the number of bags. The board has two holes different in size, and the number of throws allowed to each per- son in a game is usually three or five, the players taking turn. The board should be inclined against a wall or fitted on a frame. A bag is thrown through the smaller of the two holes scores ten, through the larger hole, twenty.

Fringed Articles.
What is the best way to launder fringed articles so that the fringe will not mat together?
M. B. W.

Never starch fringed articles. When washed wring them out and shake well. After they are partly dry, lay them on the ironing board, iron out smoothly and brush the fringe with a clean whisk broom before applying the iron.

Nutting Party.
Can you tell me how a nutting party for children should be carried out?
S. D.

Decorate the rooms with branches of autumn leaves. Fasten several large branches here and there. Put the souvenirs in one and the conun- drum nuts in the other. The souvenir nuts are made by halving English walnuts, removing the meats and in- serting some trifle like a trinket, a bright new penny or a little locket. Then the two halves of the nut are glued together with a loop of red or yellow ribbon between, to hang them on the tree. The conundrum nuts are made in the same fashion. Conun- drums written on thin slips of paper are placed inside these, the conun- drums being written after this fash- ion:

1. What nut is best with bread?
Butter nut.
2. What nut makes you think of South America? Brazil nut.
3. What nut reminds you of a girl's name? Hazel nut.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.
It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds him- self regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the or- gans of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an un- failing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medi- cine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.
Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

ARRAIGNED AT BAR OF SUPREME COURT

Convicted Officials of Tennessee Will Receive Their Sentence.

UNUSUAL PROCEEDING

Charged With Contempt, Defen- dants Are Denied New Hearing.

WASHINGTON, November 1.—The unusual proceeding of an arraign- ment for sentence at the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States will be witnessed two weeks from to-day, in accordance with an announcement made to-day in the cases of Joseph H. Shipp, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and five co-defendants, charged with con- tempt. The court to-day denied mo- tions for a rehearing of the cases.

The cases originated in the court's decision in March, 1906, to consider the appeal of a negro named Ed. John- son from a verdict of the Tennessee courts holding him guilty and sen- tencing him to be hanged on a charge of criminal assault. The night after the determination of the Supreme Court to review the proceedings in the case was wired to Chattanooga, where Johnson was confined in jail, a number of people stormed the jail and took him out and lynched him.

The court was much incensed over the lynching, and at its instance the Attorney-General instituted proceed- ings against Shipp, who was the sheriff of the jail, and twenty-five others supposed to have been impli- cated in the lynching, charging them with contempt of the Supreme Court. Many of the accused were exonerated, and in the end only six were found guilty. These were Sheriff Shipp, his deputy, Jeremiah Gibson, who was the jailer, Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Padgett and William Mayes, res- idents of Chattanooga.

Action Postponed.
The finding of the court was an- nounced in May, just before the close of the last term of the court, but all the defendants entered motions for a rehearing, which had the effect of postponing action until the present term.

The court to-day, through Chief Jus- tice Fuller, announced its denial of the motions, the Chief Justice stating at the same time its decision to have the defendants appear on November 15 to receive sentence.

It will be the duty of Marshal Wright to present the men in court, but he said to-day that he expected all of them to appear to hear the court's ver- dict, which would relieve him of the necessity of going to Chattanooga af- ter them.

The court has the discretion to fine or imprison the men, or to inflict both penalties, and no intimation has been given as to what course may be pursued. It is only known that from the beginning of the proceeding, the court has been exceptionally interested in the case, and is believed to feel that an exam- ple must be made to prevent other in- dignities to the court.

It is recalled, however, that several of the members of the court, among whom was the late Justice Peckham, objected to the case being brought to court, which may have the effect of lessening the severity of the sentence.

The only instance of a sentence for contempt in the court's history occur- red in 1875, when one John Chiles, who was concerned in dealings in Texas indemnity bonds contrary to an order of the court, was ordered to pay a fine of $250 for contempt. This time there will be six men instead of one, and the proceedings will therefore be un- precedented as regards number.

All the defendants assert innocence. Shipp and Gibson declare there was no advance indication of violence to John- son, and say that otherwise they would have taken better precaution. Most of the other men implicated claim not to have been present when the negro was killed by the mob.

Defendants Surprised.
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., November

A "Square Deal"

It is often argued that women do not have an equal chance with men, because women suffer so much from pain and weakness. In a general sense, it is true that women bear more physical pain than men. However, the belief that women must suffer regularly, on account of ailments and weakness pec- uliar to their sex, has been successfully contra- dicted by the relief so many women have obtained by the use of Cardui, that great remedy for women.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. S. J. Kintner, of R. F. D. No. 2, Defiance, Ohio, tried Cardui and of her experience she writes: "I have taken six bottles of Cardui and have been greatly benefited. Before taking Cardui, I couldn't be on my feet half an hour at a time, but now I can work all day. I am in better health than I have been for five years. I shall recommend Cardui to all my friends."

What Cardui has done for Mrs. Kintner and other women, it surely can do for you. Try it once. Give yourself a "square deal." Cardui is sold every- where, by all reliable druggists.

1.—The news from Washington to- day to the effect that the Supreme Court of the United States had refused to grant a rehearing of the Shipp con- tempt case, was received by Captain Joseph F. Shipp and his five co- defendants with much surprise. The attorneys for the convicted parties were greatly surprised that the case was on call to-day, no notification to this effect having been given.

Captain Shipp, after recovering from the shock of the news, said that later he would have something to say, but after consulting his attorneys, he de- cided that it was best to preserve silence.

Jeremiah Gibson, the aged jailer, who is summoned with the others to appear in Washington, November 15, to receive sentence, was almost pro- strated by the news. He is seventy-six years of age.

Attorneys for the defendants are hard at work in the endeavor to dis- cover new evidence, but the time being short they have little hope of securing anything sufficiently tangible to serve as a further stay.

The feeling expressed in Chat- tanooga to-night is that of the deepest sympathy, and there is an under- current of excitement that is somewhat alarming.
